ACCEPTING PROPOSALS FOR OUTDOOR SCULPTURE

Artists Create Change - Long Island Public Arts Festival

Sponsored by: Creatives Rebuild New York

At Phelp's Lane Park

151 Phelps Lane North Babylon, NY 11703

Sculpture Garden Open for Viewing: June 6th - August 31st 2024

About Our Festival:

BACCA (Babylon Citizens Council on the Arts), Harper Bella, and Jose Tutiven - the Artists Create Change project and partnership through CRNY - invite artists to submit their art to the Long Island Public Arts Festival - a vibrant celebration of creativity transforming Phelps Lane Park in North Babylon, NY into an immersive public arts exhibition. All information is available at www.babylonarts.org.

Details:

- Sculptures will be on display in a grassy outdoor area in a public Town of Babylon Park Phelp's Lane Park: 151 Phelps Lane North Babylon, NY 11703.
- Sculptures must be composed of materials that are weather resistant and durable considering the possibility of public interaction.
- Installation will be coordinated individually with each artist following acceptance.
- The number of works selected for this opportunity will be determined based on the dimensions and nature of submissions received. All featured works will be selected by the Artists Create Change Program Committee.
- Entry and submission of sculptural work to this call to artists constitutes an understanding that BACCA, The Town of Babylon, and the individuals involved in this project will not be held responsible for damages, loss, or theft to/of personal property. Artists agree that their work will not be removed from the exhibition location until after August 31st, 2024. Selected artists will be required to sign a waiver to be an eligible exhibiting artist.

Submissions are due by May 5th, 2024 at 11:59 PM EST. Selected artists will be notified no later than May 10th, 2024.
